UPCOMING MUSICAL EVENTS IN CHURCH

Supporting the church Transformation Project

The Sky in a Room – Ragnar Kjartansson

Saturday 25th June to Sunday 3rd July, 2-7pm each day

Collaborating with IKON Gallery and Artes Mundi, this site-specific performance piece by Icelandic artist, Ragnar Kjartansson, sees a series of organists playing and singing the famous 1959 Italian song 'Il Cielo in una Stanza' (The Sky in a Room) continuously, like a never-ending lullaby.

Visitors may drop into this event as often and for as long as they wish.

Free event, donations welcome in support of the transformation fund.

Ragnar will be in the village – on The Green or in The Bell – on Friday, 24th June (before the event starts on Saturday 25th) and would love to meet you! Do stop by if you can.

Celebrate the launch of The SIAR event – Talk and Refreshments

Saturday 25th June: 7pm - 8:30pm (after the first day of performances)

Ragnar Kjartansson and artist Sam Belinfante discuss the histories of film, music, theatre and literature, that underscore this durational project. After the talk join us for a drink in the Churchyard.

Performances: 2-7pm Talk: 7-7.45pm. Drinks: 7.45-8.30pm.

This is a free event, donations welcome.

Booking required – via IKON's website:
